Gospel Reflection

Doing God's work does not make you God; though sometimes it is easy for the ego to think so. To imagine that nothing will be done if you are not there to do it; nothing will be right if you are not there to check it; that others will go astray if you are not there to put them on the right path.

Sometimes, it is you who need grace; sometimes the time, gentleness and understanding that you give to others you must give to yourself - in rest; in prayer; in meditation; in quiet and lonely places - trusting that the Lord will take care of all his people - including you.

Gospel Reading Mark 6 30-34

The apostles then rendezvoused with Jesus and reported on all that they had done and taught.

Jesus said, "Come off with me by yourselves; let's take a break and get a little rest." For there was constant coming and going. They didn't even have time to eat.

So they got in the boat and went off to a remote place by themselves. Someone saw them going and the word got around.
From the surrounding towns people went out on foot, running, and got there ahead of them.

When Jesus arrived, he saw this huge crowd.
At the sight of them, his heart broke - like sheep with no shepherd they were.
He went right to work teaching them.

Coffee morning: Another successful Coffee Morning last week raised £145. A great vote of thanks goes to those who organise these events.
Our next Coffee morning will be on Tuesday September 18th at 10:30am.
We would love to see more people supporting these events. (No Coffee Morning in August as it's the holiday season).

Lourdes: If you have any Intentions that you would like to go to Lourdes, please let Fr Simon know by Wednesday of this week.

"Race For Life" – If you sponsored Sue for this event can you please bring

Many thanks for supporting her.
