

Gospel Reflection

This is day 2 of Jesus' ministry. John sees Jesus coming towards him and uses the phrase "Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" for the first time. This concept would have been earth shattering to a Jew. The concept of an animal absorbing sin in place of man was quite familiar to the Jews. John's statement now introduces the concept of God being the sacrifice for the sin of the entire world -not just for the Jewish nation. This is utterly unthinkable and incredibly shocking on two accounts: That instead of a lamb for sacrifice, it would be God Himself and That the sacrifice would atone for all of mankind, not just for the Jews. This would have been earth shattering and probably offensive to the Jews.

John would have been quite familiar with the Jewish sacrificial system since he was the son of a priest (Zechariah). Every morning and evening a lamb was sacrificed at the temple for the sins of the people. This was a practice that had to be done repeatedly. John the Baptist confidently looks at Jesus and gives Jesus the title He so rightly deserves, regardless of who might be offended. John points others to Jesus with this proclamation, especially his own disciples.

Gospel

John 1 29-34

The very next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and yelled out, “Here he is, God’s Passover Lamb! He forgives the sins of the world! This is the man I’ve been talking about, ‘the One who comes after me but is really ahead of me.’ I knew nothing about who he was—only this: that my task has been to get Israel ready to recognize him as the God-Revealer. That is why I came here baptizing with water, giving you a good bath and scrubbing sins from your life so you can get a fresh start with God.”

John clinched his witness with this:

“I watched the Spirit, like a dove flying down out of the sky, making himself at home in him. I repeat, I know nothing about him except this: The One who authorized me to baptize with water told me, ‘The One on whom you see the Spirit come down and stay, this One will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’ That’s exactly what I saw happen, and I’m telling you, there’s no question about it: This is the Son of God.”
